

Steve McClure is the President of International Plastics, with over 40 years of experience in the plastic packaging industry. Steve has an extensive knowledge in procurement and international sourcing. Through strategic planning he constantly has a high impact in customer relationships while also anticipating market trends with his forward thinking. His team building philosophy helps the company to build partnerships between customers and vendors.

Bio/Executive Summary

James Stephen (Steve) McClure

President, International Plastics

Born June 20, 1955

Graduate of University of South Florida with Bachelor of Arts in Business Management and Economics 1977

Certified Purchasing Manager with Lifetime Certification 1998 NAPM

Private Pilot with Instrument Rating

Hobbies- Tennis, golf, fly fishing, hiking, travel, playing guitar, cycling.

Phone 864-297-8000

email Steve@interplas.com